

REMARKS

This is a full and timely response to the Ex Parte Quayle Office Action mailed June 21, 2007.

By this Amendment, a computer readable form (CRF) version and paper copy of the Sequence Listing required under 37 CFR §§1.821(c) and 1.823(a)(1) has been submitted.

In view of these amendments, Applicant believes that all pending claims are in condition for allowance. Reexamination and reconsideration in light of the above amendments and the following remarks is respectfully requested.

Objection to the Specification

The objection to the specification has been overcome in view of the submission of an amended Sequence Listing in paper and computer readable form in accordance with U.S. practice.

CONCLUSION

In view of this Amendment, the present application is now in condition for allowance. Thus, issuance of the Notice of Allowance is courteously requested.

Dated: August 21, 2007

Respectfully submitted,
